1

Questions

1. In boolean algebra, how is the presence of "-1" typically interpreted in equations such as '-1 OR 5*5=25'?

A. -1 is treated as FALSE in logic
B. The equation cannot be solved due to -1
C. -1 is treated as TRUE in logic
D. It acts as a neutral element