-1 OR 5*5=25 --

Questions

1. What makes '-1 OR 5*5=25' a true statement in logical derivation?

A. In OR statements, a single true value suffices to validate all.
B. It's a fallacy based on misinterpreted logic operators.
C. Both must be integers for validity.
D. Negatives invalidating positive computations.