1

Questions

1. What is one characteristic of the number 1 in mathematical operations?

A. It is the only even prime number.
B. It is the identity element for multiplication.
C. It is not considered a prime number.
D. It is divisible by every whole number.